To Whom It May Concern,

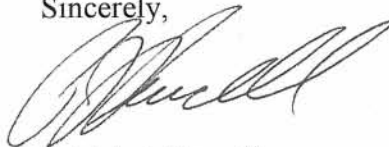

I have had the pleasure of working with Dario DiMare on numerous occasions, and in each case he proved to be a reliable, prudent and intelligent adviser.

The first instance involved a major expansion of the San Antonio Express News, including the installation of three Goss Colorliner presses as well as other major office remodeling.

The other cases were more modest in scope but involved relatively significant expenditures for the Boston Herald. On each project Dario's advice was helpful.

I would not hesitate to recommend him.

Sincerely,

Patrick J. Purcell
