Dario lands contracts

Dario Designs Inc. said it's been named to oversee the following newspaper production plant assessment, upgrade and construction projects:

Chicago Tribune, where the newspaper is adding color towers to its existing Goss Metro presses (see Newspapers & Technology, May 2004).

The Times, Shreveport, La., where the newspaper is assessing future expansion of its downtown production facility.

Seacoast Newspapers, Portsmouth, N.H., where the newspapers are building a new office and production facility designed to house The Portsmouth Herald, The Exeter News-Letter, The Hampton Union and The Rockingham News.

Bristol (Va.) Herald-Courier, where the newspaper is building a new production facility (see Newspapers & Technology, June 2004).

Cayman FreePress, where the newspaper is building a new office and production facility on Grand Cayman Island.

The Vindicator, Youngstown, Ohio, where the newspaper is assessing its future production needs.
