

OCTOBER 31, 2005

Dario taps Dario

Employees of Dario Designs Inc. gather at the site of the new 15,000-square-foot headquarters the newspaper facility design firm in building in Marlboro, Mass.

The facility, expected to be completed next summer, will house a staff that's grown by 18 people over the past 18 months, according to Dario DiMare, president.

The building will adhere to the "golden section," a design proportion used by ancient architects and artists such as Leonardo de Vinci and Michelangelo, DiMare said.

