

SEPTEMBER 8, 2008

Dario Designs lands contracts

Dario Designs Inc. said it signed contracts with five media/printing companies to conduct consolidation studies. The projects include analyzing the potential for centralizing operations among several newspapers and evaluating options for outsourcing production to sister papers as well as to printers under different ownership. Two of the contracts are outside of the United States, DDI said. Additionally, the firm said it was hired to provide masterplanning and strategic planning services on three other projects.